

Chris Hurlbut, KL9A

Chris has been a ham since he was 10 years old, his original call was WL7KY. His father, KL7FH, and grandfather, KE7MP were his Elmers. Chris has been fortunate enough to travel and operate from some of the best stations in the world while meeting amazing people. He is currently trying to live out his boyhood dream of owning his own station and not being just a nomadic operator. Chris was a WRTC competitor in 2006, 2010, 2014 and 2018.
